CAN YOU IDENTIFY THE SUBJECTS OF THESE VIEWS?

by Neal Bullington

The Unknowns

Ken Bates was able to identify the views at the top of page 21 in the Nov./Dec. '92 issue as one of more than twenty natural springs in Eureka Springs, Arkansas. He enclosed a recent photo of the same site showing that little has changed over the years. The unknown view was probably taken at the turn of the century by one of the town's five resident stereo photographers who operated from about 1880 to 1910.

Mike Zohn responded to the unknown of the wake, illustrated at the bottom of page 21 in the same issue. He has several wake scenes by different publishers. In some the mourners wear masks, in some they don't. A view by H.L. Roberts & Co. of Philadelphia is posed similarly to the Kilburn unknown. There are eight people shown. Seven of these, including the corpse, wear masks. The only one without a mask is holding the mouth of a liquor bottle to the lips of the corpse.
